ABOUT FEGENTRI

Organisation

FEGENTRI stands for Fédération Internationale des Gentlemen-Riders et des Cavalières (International Federation of Gentlemen and Lady Riders) and was founded in 1955 by a handful of enthusiastic amateur riders. The founding member countries were France, Germany, Italy, Sweden and Switzerland. Many nations have joined FEGENTRI since then and today the membership consists of 24 different countries.

International Activities of FEGENTRI

The main purpose of FEGENTRI is to promote international races for amateur riders.

FEGENTRI organises two World Championships, one confined to gentlemen riders and the other to lady riders, comprising approximately 50 races in different countries around the world. FEGENTRI organizes as well a Championship over jumps for Lady riders and Gentlemen riders and Amateur Riders Championship Cup.

Competitors in LONGINES FEGENTRI World Championships

The best amateur riders of each member country of FEGENTRI qualify to participate in the WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS and they all feel honoured and privileged to represent their respective countries. They are all “amateurs” and therefore do not receive any fee for riding in races. Amateur riders competing in FEGENTRI World Championship races come from varied backgrounds and have a full time profession. Among competitors one may find bankers, students, policemen and even a vicar! They are all united by a common passion for horseracing.

Members of FEGENTRI

All the member countries of FEGENTRI have their own active association which is responsible for promoting and co-ordinating races and safeguarding the interests of their amateur riders both at home and abroad. The officials of each amateur riders' association represent their nation at the Annual General Assembly of FEGENTRI which is hosted by a different country each year and throughout the season they maintain a close link with the headquarters of FEGENTRI. Associate Members do not have their own amateur club but can organize Fegentri races which count towards the World Championship.

CELEBRATING 65 YEARS OF INTERNATIONAL AMATEUR RACING

Another great racing season has come to an end. Another great year of friendship, courage and elegance. We just entered a new decennium which will be decisive for our sport. Amateur riders, now officially named Amateur Jockeys, will be key in determining our bright future continuing to be an important source of oxygen for the industry.

Nearly 65 years ago a few friends decided to create an international Federation for Gentlemen Riders, FEGENTRI. During those years, FEGENTRI never lost track and perpetuated our strong values in a changing world, sending riders across the globe. Our federation has offered so many young riders the opportunity to experience riding on little-known racecourses to the most famous. I would like to remind that all this has been possible thanks to all those who volunteer year after year in their National Club.

Paris, city of lights, capital of elegance, is the best place indeed to celebrate our 65th Anniversary. Thanks to the efforts of our friend President Gérard de Chevigny and all members of the French Club we are together again to celebrate our champions and Amateur Racing in presence of both Patrons of FEGENTRI Baron Henry de Montesquieu and Nathalie Bélinguier but also in presence of former President Thierry Lohest.

Congratulations to all our champions: Mathilde Bourillon, Alexis Lemer, Willa Synøve Marcussen Schou, Pablo Laborde, Tereza Grbavčicová, Pat Millman, Alberto Berton, Tina Henriksson, Hana Jurankova and David Prichard !

Longines, our partner with whom we share the same values, accompanied us this year again with a lot of class. We are proud to share those values and keep building together in confidence.

I would like to thank our two Vice-Presidents, Gérard de Chevigny and Paul von Schubert, all the Board Members and Agnès Sibers our Secretary General, who all worked hard the whole season long.

Our International Federation is ready for the future. We will keep on being the international reference for the development and promotion of Amateur races. Over the years, FEGENTRI changed but continued to uphold the true spirit of our founders. Which is by far our greatest achievement. Likewise, Thierry Lohest in St-Moritz in 2005, while celebrating our 50th anniversary, “my wish for the next 65 years is that we will remain committed to letting only true amateurs ride in our races”. In honour of all those who have “made” FEGENTRI what it is today, I would like our true amateurs still to remain our champions of tomorrow.

Elie Hennau

President of Fegentri

GENERAL ASSEMBLY 2019 IN ST MORITZ

Fegentri was back in St Moritz sixty four years after its foundation by a handful of enthusiastic amateur riders. The guests enjoyed a traditional fondue dinner in Corviglia Brasserie overlooking the breathtaking valley and the friendly atmosphere certainly warmed everyone up!

The Award Ceremony and Gala Dinner held in Laudinella Hotel were the occasion of an unprecedented home coming for Fegentri former riders, who underlined the success of Fegentri in its prime mission: creating long lasting links of friendship amongst nations.

Celebrations then reach their climax on the occasion of inaugural Longines Fegentri Amateur Riders Champion Cup's race, set during the prestigious St Moritz White Turf Festival racing meeting.

Two years after his fellow Gentleman-rider Thomas Guineheux, Alexis brings the World Champion title back to France and his achievement will long remain in our memories!

Pat Millman winning in Parx Racing (USA) on Hazaspittin

As Great Britain chose to present five riders in the championship, his individual chances were mathematically lower... but Pat brilliantly rose up to the challenge!

Winner in USA, runner-up twice in Madrid and Budapest, he not only showed an impeccable riding ability but also all his kindness and joyful spirit. Well done Pat, very well deserved!

Mathild Bourillon (FRA) wins on Half Tiger in Jägersro, Sweden

MATHILDE BOURILLON
(FRANCE)

Longines World Fegentri
Championship for Lady Riders

Winner of the Golden Spur

FLAT

She took a sabbatical year in order to fully commit to her Fegentri season and her motivation was well rewarded!

Along with an unforgettable successes festival in Jägersro, Mathilde repeated the great results: placed in Rome, Frauenfeld, Budapest, Varese and Istanbul, she also wrote history by winning the inaugural Fegentri race in Casa-Anfa.

She was already World Champion before the final in Mauritius and brings home a well deserved title. Very well done, Mathilde!

The competition for the second place remained uncertain until the final in Mauritius, where Willa scored a decisive third place after an epic finish line.

Also second in La Martinique, Magdeburg, Deauville and Ostende, the Oslo laureate is now aiming for a professional jockey carrier.

Amateurism is a source of oxygen for horse racing and flamboyant Willa will for sure be up to it.

We wish her the best in the future!

Focus, tenacity, perseverance,
Tereza is an example for each rider and 2019 was her year.

She opened the score in the first race in Muscat, won the inaugural leg in La Martinique and achieved another french victory in Chantilly!
Only one point kept her away from the second step of the podium but Tereza will be back in 2020, and stronger than ever!
Good luck Tereza!

EQUESTRIAN SPORTS, A PASSION SHARED BY LONGINES AND THE AMATEURS OF THE FEGENTRI

Strongly committed to equestrian sports, Longines has always admired and supported athletes' and personalities' strong devotion and recognized contribution to these sports, including youngsters and amateurs who share the same passion as the watchmaker.

Therefore, the brand is really proud to be the Official Partner and Watch of the International Federation of Gentlemen and Lady Riders (FEGENTRI). It also lends its name to the rankings for riders taking part in the championships: the Longines Fegentri World Championship Rankings for Lady Riders and the Longines FEGENTRI Championship Rankings for Gentlemen Riders.

Every year, Longines participates to the Longines Fegentri World Championships prize ceremony held at the FEGENTRI Annual General Meeting and has the great honor to award the top three winners of, respectively, the Longines Fegentri World Championship for Lady Riders and the Longines Fegentri World Championship for Gentlemen Riders. The World Champions are also invited to visit the headquarters and the museum of the Swiss watchmaker in Saint-Imier, which is always a pleasant shared moment, particularly appreciated by the Champions who can contemplate the Longines Fegentri World Championship Trophy with their name engraved exposed in the museum.

While the amateurs are competing all around the world from February to December, Longines is always delighted to reward the winner of the Prix de la Reine Marie-Amélie Longines during one of June's most awaited horseraces, the Prix de Diane Longines, at the wonderful domain of Chantilly.

Along with this horserace and many others, the watch brand is associated as Official Partner, Timekeeper and Watch with international institutions and events in the disciplines of show jumping, eventing, endurance, driving and horseracing. The brand's passion for equestrian sports dates back to more than a century and is reflected in the common values it shares with them, such as Elegance, Performance and Tradition.
