About Fegentri

Organisation

FEGENTRI stands for Fédération Internationale des Gentlemen-Riders et des Cavalières (International Federation of Gentlemen and Lady Riders) and was founded in 1955 by a handful of enthusiastic amateur riders. The founding member countries were France, Germany, Italy, Sweden and Switzerland. Many nations have joined FEGENTRI since then and today the membership consists of 18 different countries.

International Activities of FEGENTRI

The main purpose of FEGENTRI is to promote international races for amateur riders. FEGENTRI organises two World Championships, one confined to gentlemen riders and the other to lady riders, comprising approximately 50 races in different countries around the world. Fegentri organizes as well a Championship over jumps for Lady riders and Gentlemen riders.

Competitors in Longines FEGENTRI World Championships

The best amateur riders of each member country of FEGENTRI qualify to participate in the World Championships and they all feel honoured and privileged to represent their respective countries. They are all "amateurs" and therefore do not receive any fee for riding in races. Amateur riders competing in FEGENTRI World Championship races come from varied backgrounds and have a full time profession. Among competitors one may find bankers, students, policemen and even a vicar! They are all united by a common passion for horseracing.

Members of FEGENTRI

All the member countries of FEGENTRI have their own active association which is responsible for promoting and co-ordinating races and safeguarding the interests of their amateur riders both at home and abroad. The officials of each amateur riders' association represent their nation at the Annual General Assembly of FEGENTRI which is hosted by a different country each year and throughout the season they maintain a close link with the headquarters of FEGENTRI. Associate Members do not have their own amateur club but can organize Fegentri races which count towards the World Championship.

In the year of the centenary of the Club des Gentlemen-Riders et des Cavalières de France, it is fascinating to note that the values of Fegentri such as sharing a common passion for riding, friendship, and elegance, are more than ever present. With Fegentri's partner Longines, we are sharing the same values. Fegentri's watchword is «Elegance», following Longines' mantra «Elegance is an attitude». These values are the strength of Fegentri; the Longines Fegentri teams competed fiercely on the track but always with an underlying attitude of friendship and respect.

This is the strength of Fegentri, which will remain forever.

Nathalie Bélinguier,
 Patron of Fegentri

Dear members, dear friends,

Another year of racing, friendships and travels has come to an end, and it was a pleasure to live it with you all. This year was a bounce back of amateur racing after the difficult years of the pandemic, and we are delighted to show again a calendar constantly evolving towards the level it was before Covid-19 hit.

Congratulations to the Longines Fegentri World Championships awarded riders Jenny Langhard, Antonia von der Recke, Emilie Finckenhagen, Antonio Siri, Thibault Marlin, Matt Ennis and to all the riders who participated in 2022; you have proven your elegance, racing excellence and your involvement in this great year of racing and challenges.

I would like to thank our Vice-Presidents Paul von Schubert and Gérard de Chevigny, our Board Members David Dunsdon, Mohammed Al Hashmi, Franco Castelfranchi, Don Yovanovich and Hans Engblom for their work and dedication. I also would like to thank our main sponsor Longines for its precious support in our Federation and our sport. As the world evolves around us, it is important to adapt and innovate in order to shape the Fegentri of tomorrow. The Fegentri will more than ever keep promoting the development of amateur racing through the world, and create a passion for future owners, industry leaders, racecourse officials, brilliant future jockeys and many more.

Last but not least for 2022, all my gratitude goes to Charlotte who arrived in May as our new Secretary General and who succeeded in only a few days' time to achieve unanimity of the whole worldwide amateur riders community.

I wish you all a wonderful racing season!

Elie Hennau,
President of Fegentri

OFFICIAL PARTNER
OF THE INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION
FOR AMATEUR JOCKEYS

Dear Fegentri members,
This 2022 Fegentri season represents a first for me. And what a season! Through my travels with the Fegentri riders I got to meet you all, and really understand that special bond that links us, international amateur races actors, together.

This 'Fegentri family' has been so welcoming and I would like to thank you all for your support and incredible hospitality during this first year. A year that came with its challenges, and its hopes. I am greatly excited about what is yet to come in this new year of Fegentri, with the goal of always aiming higher, to keep the Fegentri the renowned Championship it always was, and even expand it further. I would like to thank the President Elie Hennau and the Board members for believing in me from the start. I am honored to represent such a prestigious Federation, aiming for the noble cause of the development of amateur racing worldwide.
Long live Fegentri!

Charlotte Rinckenbach,
General Secretary of Fegentri

GALA & AWARDS DINNER CEREMONY

IN STOCKHOLM

HÄBO BUSS

The 66th General Assembly of the Fegentri took place near Stockholm in Sweden, in the impressive Lejondals Castle, surrounded by a beautiful park and lake. The Fegentri members enjoyed the discovery of the city and the magnificent harbour, and visited the iconic Abba museum.

The Award Ceremony and Gala Dinner held at Bro Park Racecourse was the occasion of a reunion amongst the Fegentri members and underlined the success of Fegentri in its prime mission: creating long lasting links of friendship amongst nations. The weekend was also the occasion to launch the 2022 Longines Fegentri World Championship for Lady Riders, with two races held on the Sunday at Bro Park Racecourse.

+ Jenny Langhard (SWITZERLAND)
GOLDEN SPUR

Jenny had a brilliant 2022 Fegentri season. She succeeded five times in Germany, Switzerland and Mauritius. She brings the World title back to Switzerland after a very competitive season, as she had the exact same number of points as the German lady rider Antonia von der Recke before the final race. Her win during the final in Mauritius on the outsider horse carrying the lightest weight of the race was key to her success. Congratulations Jenny!

Germany
Antonia von der Recke (GERMANY)
VERMEIL SPUR

After a first winner at Bro Park in Sweden on the first meeting for Lady Riders of the season, Antonia shined through her talent on the track, signing a second victory on the racecourse of Casa-Anfa at the occasion of Morocco's International meeting, after being placed several times. Antonia came very close to being sacred World Champion, finishing at only 8 points of the Golden Spur.

Well done Antonia!

 Emilie Finckenhagen (NORWAY)
BRONZE SPUR

Emilie completes the 2022 podium with a well-deserved third place. She signed an incredible double at Veliefendi racecourse in Istanbul, before winning in Pisa at the occasion of the last Fegentri race of the season in Italy. At only sixteen points behind the winner, Emilie showed great riding skills and an undeniable team player spirit throughout the season. Nice work Emilie!

A dynamic photograph of jockey Antonio Siri in mid-air, leaning forward in a racing position. He wears a white helmet with a red band and goggles, a blue and red striped silks, and white breeches with 'A. SIRI' printed on the side. The horse is dark brown with a white blaze on its forehead and white wraps on its lower legs. It wears a blue and red striped hood. A blue racing saddle cloth with the number '6' is visible. The background shows a grassy track and some racecourse infrastructure.

🇮🇹 Antonio Siri (ITALY) GOLDEN SPUR

Four years after his compatriot Alberto Berton, Antonio is sacred World Champion and brings the title back to Italy. Antonio was particularly successful in his home country this season, winning in both Pisa and Rome. He demonstrated great riding talent during the past year. Congratulations Antonio!

■ Thibault Marlin (FRANCE)
VERMEIL SPUR

Thibault accomplished a nice performance in this championship. The west of France based gentleman-rider showed great perseverance and sportsmanship and competed in every race this season. This talented journalist finished on a nice second place in the Final in Pisa. Bravo Thibault!

Matt Ennis (GREAT BRITAIN) BRONZE SPUR

Experienced amateur jockey, Matt managed to secure this third place in the Longines Fegentri World Championship for Gentlemen-Riders, despite sharing the Fegentri race meetings with another Gentleman-Rider for Great Britain. Passionate about horse racing and travels, Matt took the most of every Fegentri steps he got to experience.
Well done Matt!

Longines

EQUESTRIAN SPORTS, A PASSION SHARED BY LONGINES AND THE AMATEURS OF THE FEGENTRI

Strongly committed to equestrian sports, Longines has always admired and supported athletes' and personalities' strong devotion and recognized contribution to these sports, including youngsters and amateurs who share the same passion as the watchmaker.

Therefore, the brand is really proud to be the Official Partner and Watch of the International Federation of Gentlemen and Lady Riders (FEGENTRI). It also lends its name to the rankings for riders taking part in the championships: the Longines World FEGENTRI Championship Rankings for Lady Riders and the Longines FEGENTRI Championship Rankings for Gentlemen Riders.

Every year, Longines participates to the Longines World FEGENTRI Championships prize ceremony held at the FEGENTRI Annual General Meeting and has the great honor to award the top three winners of, respectively, the Longines World FEGENTRI Championship for Lady Riders and the Longines World FEGENTRI Championship for Gentlemen Riders. The World Champions are also invited to visit the headquarters and the museum of the Swiss watchmaker in Saint-Imier, which is always a pleasant shared moment, particularly appreciated by the Champions who can contemplate the Longines World FEGENTRI Championship Trophy with their name engraved exposed in the museum.

While the amateurs are competing all around the world from February to December, Longines is always delighted to reward the winner of the Prix de la Reine Marie-Amélie Longines during one of June's most awaited horseraces, the Prix de Diane Longines, at the wonderful domain of Chantilly.

Along with this horserace and many others, the watch brand is associated as Official Partner, Timekeeper and Watch with international institutions and events in the disciplines of show jumping, eventing, endurance, driving and horseracing. The brand's passion for equestrian sports dates back to more than a century and is reflected in the common values it shares with them, such as Elegance, Performance and Tradition.
