FEGENTRI PRESS INFORMATION

FEGENTRI
1955 – 2025
70 years of World Championships

Dear Friends of FEGENTRI,

On behalf of our President, Paul von Schubert, and the entire Board, I am delighted to present the seventh edition of our 2026 FEGENTRI Press Release.

October has been another exciting month for FEGENTRI, marked by the conclusion of the 2026 FEGENTRI Jump Championship. As approved at our last General Assembly, the Jump Championship is now contested between nations rather than individual riders, with each nominated rider earning points for their country throughout the season.

Following an exceptionally close championship, Ireland claimed the 2026 Gold Spur, finishing at the same level with Sweden on 28 points but securing the title thanks to its greater number of victories.

Our warmest congratulations go to the Qualified Riders Association of Ireland, presided by Patrick Mullins, and to the two riders who represented Ireland in the FEGENTRI Jump Championship this season: Ross Sugrue, who competed in the opening race at Cork, and Dan Hyde, who represented Ireland in five races and achieved two victories, in Bad Harzburg and Pardubice.

We sincerely thank our clubs, racecourses and partners for their continued support of the FEGENTRI Championships. To support FEGENTRI further, become an Individual Member (FIM) by contacting charlotte@fegentri.com.

Thank you once again for your invaluable support and for being part of the FEGENTRI family.

With kind regards,
Charlotte Rinckenbach
General Secretary, FEGENTRI

FEGENTRI World Championship for Lady Riders

OCTOBER 5, 2026 – BUDAPEST, HUNGARY

The FEGENTRI Lady Riders returned to Kincsem Park in Budapest for their second visit of the season. Hungary's non-nominated rider, Zita Elbert, claimed victory aboard NOR'EASTER over the 1,400 meters course, finishing ahead of Mie Blichfeldt, representing Norway.

Beyond the racing, the participants enjoyed a lovely day of Hungarian hospitality, including a meal at the racecourse and an opportunity to explore Budapest together.

OCTOBER 16, 2026 – LAUREL PARK, USA – RACE CANCELLED

Unfortunately, the scheduled FEGENTRI Lady Riders race at Laurel Park was cancelled due to circumstances beyond ARCA's control, including an unexpectedly low number of entries.

FEGENTRI regrets that this international racing opportunity could not take place.

OCTOBER 24, 2026 – MUNICH, GERMANY

The 23rd race of the 2026 FEGENTRI World Championship for Lady Riders took place in Munich, Germany.

Nora Cronauer (GER) further strengthened her position at the top of the championship rankings with an impressive fifth victory of the season, her fourth on German soil, aboard KELANI.

OCTOBER 18, 2026 – WROCŁAW, POLAND – HURDLES

The sixth step of the 2026 FEGENTRI Jump Championship took place at the beautiful and historic Tor Partynice racecourse in Wrocław, Poland.

The international riders competed over a challenging 3,200-metre hurdles course. Elliot Öhgren, representing Sweden, delivered an outstanding performance to claim victory in Wrocław for the second consecutive year. Jan Ilik, representing the Czech Republic, finished fourth, while Ireland's Dan Hyde took the fifth place.

Beyond the sporting competition, the riders enjoyed the warm welcome and wonderful atmosphere of this historic racecourse.

OCTOBER 24, 2026 – COMPIÈGNE, FRANCE – STEEPLE-CHASE

The final leg of the 2026 FEGENTRI Jump Championship took place at the beautiful Compiègne racecourse in France, bringing an exceptionally close season to its conclusion.

The riders competed over a demanding 4,100-metre steeplechase, on heavy ground, in a competitive field of 12 runners.

Manon Bauer, a non-nominated French rider, claimed victory aboard BAKARELO, trained by David Windrif.

Among the championship contenders, Ireland's Dan Hyde finished fifth, followed by France's Alix Lemaire in sixth and Sweden's Elliot Öhgren in seventh.

Dan Hyde's fifth-place finish earned Ireland two crucial points, allowing the nation to level up with Sweden on 28 points. With two victories during the season compared with Sweden's one, Ireland secured the Gold Spur for the 2026 FEGENTRI Jump Championship.

This thrilling finale brought a memorable FEGENTRI Jump season to a close, marked by outstanding performances, close competition and the spirit of friendship that unites the international amateur racing community.

FEGENTRI Junior Championship

OCTOBER 4, 2026 – DÜSSELDORF, GERMANY

The fifth leg of the 2026 FEGENTRI Junior Championship took place at Düsseldorf racecourse, bringing together the six participating national teams for another exciting international meeting.

Célia Lohest, Belgium's only representative in the 2026 Junior Championship, celebrated her first victory of the season aboard the pony MILO.

The event was also a wonderful opportunity for the young riders to strengthen their friendships, and the six Junior teams were treated to two lovely dinners organised by Katja Warmbier and Michaela Ehmans from the Verband Deutscher Amateur-Rennreiter e.V.

With 40 points and three victories, Great Britain continues to lead the Junior Championship rankings, with just one final race remaining in Pisa, Italy.
